Natural and Native History of the Spatsizi Country

with Wade Davis

Discover the natural and native history of Spatsizi with internationally recognized ethnobotanist and photographer Dr. Wade Davis. Stay at our comfortable Eaglenest camp and travel deep into the wilderness, home of stone sheep, mountain goat, caribou, moose, grizzly bears and wolves. The mountains are covered in a blanket of sub-alpine and alpine wildflowers. Incorporate hiking, horseback riding and wildlife viewing in this educational, native historical wilderness adventure. Don't miss an opportunity to join Wade on this exciting trip observing wildlife, plants, and birds in their pristine, natural surrounding.
